ON THE FINAL CALL TO CHRISTIAN UNITY

I am moved to write this article because the time is short now – and the end prophecies are being fulfilled at a rapid rate. The unleashing of evil in the world – the last battle - has begun and it is time to take sides, in a decision that will determine eternal placement: either with the sheep or the goats.

The absolute crucial activity at the time is first, the unification of all who already bear the name and baptism of Christian – for unless there is Oneness, Unity and Solidarity in this regard: the bloodied, battered, beaten, broken, Body of Christ has not healed – and his wounds continue to cry out for relief.

We have the power within ourselves to bring healing to Christ and his Body and therefore arm the One who will do the Final Battle on our behalf – for us and for our salvation. It is the power of “cooperation” with the grace of Calvary, the grace of the Empty Tomb: by our baptism, we can claim the name “Christian” – but we also take upon ourselves the rights and duties therein. Amazingly graced, we now must put ourselves completely at the disposal of the Risen Lord for him to use us as he wills – in bringing about the emergence of a Kingdom of Justice, Peace, Love and Beauty.

In short, the time for historical differences is over; the carrying on of centuries old grievances and resentments and misunderstanding is at this point turning out to be adolescent and unmitigatingly uncompromising.

A united front against evil must be engaged in: we must follow the banner of Christ the King of the Universe, or we will surely perish in the unquenchable fires of hell: there is no other way around it.
St. Catherine of Siena talks about Jesus as the Great Bridge spanning the river of evil over which we must pass in safety to reach the Kingdom of the Father on the other side. She says that you are either on the Bridge or you’re not, either you are on the side of Christ, or you are on the side of the Devil: whose side are you on?

Evidence of siding with the Devil is frustration, chaos, fear, unsureness, lies, crippled conscience, unmitigated lust and vanity – and if any of these things is causing anyone from uniting under the One Banner of the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church – then it is of the Evil One – and must be avoided at all costs.

The Great Year of Mercy is coming at the end of the end times: first proclaimed in 1939 by St. Faustina Kowalska, from words revealed to her by Christ himself – it is not coincidental that unspeakable acts of violence, hatred and persecution are at an all-time high now! The time for Mercy is now! The time for Reconciliation is now! The time to put aside all that can lead us to perdition is now! The time for embrace the Cross of Christ Crucified is NOW! and he will protect us from evil, strengthen us so we can strengthen others in the final hours, and he will lead us safely across the Bridge to the land flowing with milk and honey – our heavenly home where our place is already prepared.

The following I perceive as ways that the Body of Christ is still shattered, broken and crying out for remedy and for healing:

- when Christians stand by idly and say and do nothing as the pervasiveness of evil infiltrates all of society
- when Christians do not take the time to study their religion and take consequent action to lead outstanding Christian lives
- when Christians who are in tune with the true Church of Christ: the Catholic Church, renounce their faith and its practice in ways small and great
- when “having it your own way” “having your cake and eating it too” is the daily diet of baptized Christians
- when baptized Christians refuse to carry their cross because it is too bothersome or inconvenient or painful for them
• when rationalization supersedes obedience to the revelation of God for our happiness and welfare
• when apostasy and heresy raise their ugly heads in the minds and hearts of once devout Christians, Catholics
• when religious indifference and a laissez-faire attitude pervades society
• when religious freedom is compromised by society and government
• when religious persecution of Christians abounds unashamedly
• when disobedience to dictates of conscience reigns rampant
• when the task of forming conscience rightly is abandoned and is replaced by aimless, pointless and dangerous self-direction, self-absorption, self-seeking
• when subjective truth completely derailed from reality
• when the glitz, glamor and tantalizing false gods of materialism and hedonism suck the true spiritual life out of unsuspecting souls
• when the murder of millions of innocent children is legally defended
• when unrestrained, misguided rationalization based on feeling alone replace the sound logic of mind and heart
• when supernatural law is trampled underfoot, as well as subsidiary natural law
• when man continues to insist on being God in most areas of life
• when the sense of sin is so anesthetized that it no longer functions
• when gossip, backbiting, slander, lies, hatred and an obtuse spirit replaces the “fruits of the spirit” that ought to shine through a Christian’s life

THIS IS WHAT CONTINUES TO HAPPEN TO OUR LORD, OUR SAVIOR, OUR BROTHER, OUR KING AND OUR FRIEND:
I challenge you to sit in front of this image for ONE HOUR and not be moved to a change of heart!

LORD JESUS CHRIST,
SON OF THE LIVING GOD
HAVE MERCY ON ME
